FUNKSHION LOUNGE + RESTAURANT, SOUTH BEACH, MIAMI

WHY IT'S HOT The producers of Miami's burgeoning Fashion Week, alongside Brian Grant (L.A. Lakers) and Radoslav Nesterovic (San Antonio Spurs), are behind this restaurant/lounge opening mid-December. Open daily until midnight, choose bites from an eclectic tri-menu—reflecting music, art and fashion—including filet mignon in Hennessy sauce for the hip-hop mogul in you (music), beautifully crafted mojito marinated chicken sautéed in dark rum sauce (art) or a baby green salad with dry figs and toasted walnuts for that supermodel body (fashion). Each night the lounge will feature a different party hosted by one of Miami's hottest promoters. Once inside you're really "in"—the entire space is VIP. VIBE Orange will be the theme color and hi-tech the design. One wall will feature a mosaic of thousands of illuminated slides from fashion shows. Located off the strip, patrons will avoid a tourist trap and being stuck in notorious late-night traffic. PEOPLE Funkshion will function as an open space for power lunches or partying by industry heads, musicians, designers, models, artists and athletes. BEATS Expect different themes each night, including hip-hop and house. VIPS Inside, party with the people who make the MIA so caliente.

Sport the bling at Funkshion Lounge, "where music meets fashion," the cool new restaurant-slash-bar at 1116 Lincoln Rd. Its Posh Tuesdays are slowly gaining momentum as one of those places to go from 10 p.m.-5 a.m. if you're antsy and aimless on a Tuesday night. Funkshion, if it sounds familiar, is owned by the folks responsible for Funkshion Fashion Week, which will happen again this month.

Others may see the dog, but for you it's all about the night. When the sun goes down you heat up whether you're dining down your favorite bar or while dining in a club. In nightclubs, your favorite bars are often bars.

Cool and engaging your magnetic personality draws others to you. Your style is clean and crisp—flexible shifts to your mood. You prefer cozy living to fancy dress, and never worry about being the most interesting person in the room. If you couldn't see...
